Business English Vocabulary Booster Body Language

Dear Readers,

Welcome to another part of BEM's series of language guides!
It's with great pleasure that we present to you our list of vocabulary concerning non-verbal communication.

People's gestures often contain more information than meets the eye.

We sincerely hope that this issue will prove useful, enriching your English vocabulary concerning body language and encouraging you at the same time to acquaint yourself with English-language literature dedicated to non-verbal behaviours, which might be beneficial in your business relationships.

We wish you a satisfactory reading and cross our fingers for your success!
