AMELIA'S BLOG

Monday, August 26th

Yesterday my family finally visited the Notting Hill Carnival. Before we left, Mum had warned us that it would be very crowded, so we agreed on a place to meet if anyone got lost. At first, I was interested mainly in the colourful costumes, but later I enjoyed listening to the live bands even more. My little brother wanted to try every Caribbean snack he saw, while Dad spent most of the afternoon taking photos of the dancers. We stayed until early evening, but we left before the parade finished because the underground stations were becoming busier every minute. I was tired when I got home, but I'd love to go again next year.

1.Amelia:

A.spent most of the carnival taking photographs.

B.stayed until the end of the parade.

C.preferred the music to the costumes.

ZADANIE 9

Przeczytaj trzy teksty związane z Notting Hill Carnival (A–C) oraz pytania 1.– 4. Do każdego pytania dopasuj właściwy tekst. Wpisz rozwiązania do tabeli.
Uwaga! Jeden z tekstów pasuje do dwóch pytań.

A.	NOTTING HILL CARNIVAL – HISTORY Notting Hill Carnival takes place every August in West London and is one of the largest street festivals in Europe. It began in the 1960s as a small community event created to celebrate Caribbean culture and help bring different communities together after a time of social problems in the UK. At first, the carnival was held indoors and attended by only a small group of people, but over time it grew and moved into the streets. Today it is an important symbol of cultural diversity and unity.

B.	NOTTING HILL CARNIVAL – TODAY Today, Notting Hill Carnival is a huge outdoor street event that lasts for two days in August. The streets of West London are filled with colourful costumes, large parade floats, steel bands, reggae and soca music, and many food stalls offering Caribbean dishes. The event attracts millions of visitors from the UK and abroad. The parade moves through several main streets, and music can be heard almost everywhere in the area during the festival.
