- brak osoby w zdaniu - (np. zobaczyłem - saw - I saw)
- brak podmiotu w zdaniach, gdzie nie ma wykonawcy czynności - osoby- (np. were trees - There were trees; was windy- it was windy)
- używanie form teraźniejszych, wyrażając przeszłość (np. I go there yesterday - I went there yesterday)
- niewłaściwe użycie czasownika „be” (np. I am there yesterday - I was there yesterday)
- mylenie przymiotników zakończonych na "ed/ing" (np. I was exciting - I was excited; the party was excited- the party was exciting)
- błędne używanie wyrazów "this/that/these/those" (szczególnie zauważalne przy liczbie mnogiej - np. this people - these people)
- dosłowne tłumaczenie zdania (np. Now, only live there my parents - now, only my parents live there)
- brak a/an przed rzeczownikami policzalnymi w liczbie pojedynczej (np. It was good idea - It was a good idea)
- używanie wyrazów potocznych (np. I was happy- I was pleased/glad/delighted)
- stosowanie "to" po wyrazach: call/phone/ring/join/enter (np. I called to her- I called her)
- używanie czasownika "have" do określenia wieku (np. I have 10 years old - I am 10 years old)
- powtarzanie wyrazów, brak użycia słów typu "one/ones" (np. I don't like this pen, I prefer this pen - I don't like this pen, I prefer this one)
- używanie "have" zamiast "has" w 3 osobie liczby pojedynczej (np. She have a big garden - she has a big garden)
- stosowanie "ing/to" po czasownikach modalnych (np. I can swimming - I can swim)
- używanie "will" po : when/if/after/before (np. When I will visit you...- When I visit you)
