

FROM THE EDITORS

The Journal is published annually and provides a forum for presentation of the latest research in various fields of African Studies. It promotes studies on African languages, literatures, and cultures. Scholars working in these areas are cordially invited to submit the results of their work for publication. Preference is given to original research based on sources in African languages.

The journal comprises articles, monographs, and reviews, as well as bibliographies, lexicographic studies, and other source materials. Some issues are devoted to specialized topics or events. All papers are reviewed according to the Journal's criteria.

The journal is indexed with and included in:

- Scopus
- The European Reference Index for the Humanities and the Social Sciences (ERIH Plus)
